If the speeches of Secretary Taft and Shaw count for anything, the people of the United States who make good crops and succeed by industry and hard work ought to pray to the Republican party.

A skunk might bathe in cologne and fancy that he is immune from recognition but the looks of him would give him away. We haven't said a word about the Republican party's grotesque stunt in endeavoring now to play the role of the white man's party.

At Lebanon, Pa., on Wednesday, Geo. Reed had an experience that rarely ever happens. He was killed by two trains on the Reading Railroad. He was struck by a swift passenger train and hurled under a fast freight that was passing on the opposite track. When two trains come after you your chances are slim.

President Roosevelt has announced through his mouth-piece, Secretary Loeb, that the statement that he is to lower himself by making common campaign speeches for the Republican State ticket in Pennsylvania is a canard. However, it is not denied that he was thimble-rigging and wire-laying with Uncle Joe Cannon and other accomplices who fixed up the Congressional campaign racket at Oyster Bay last week.

The Republican party in North Carolina comes in questionable shape, masquerading as "lily white" because it is powerless in the face of the hosts of White Supremacy. From under the mask, however, come whiffs of the unmistakable odor of the former political bedfellows of the Republicans who claim now to be white but had off-color predilections a few years ago. The "forget" of the hard-sensed North Carolinian hasn't gone out of commission quite yet.

With its issue of July 25th the Eastern Carolina News, of Kenansville, ended the first year of its existence. The paper has succeeded because it has deserved to do so and has been a power for good in Duplin county. It stands for the best interests of Duplin by advocating Democracy, urging the building of good roads, encouraging public enterprises, and advertising the resources of one of the best counties in North Carolina. Continued success to Brother Hines, the capable and wide-awake editor.

THE SHOCKLEY CASE

Continuance Until Next Term Secured By Defendant In Superior Court

ADJOURNMENT FOR TERM

Material Witnesses Were Absent—Affidavit and What Will Be Sought to Be Provided—Odds and Ends Wound Up on Docket.

Quite as a surprise to those who have closely followed the case and have heard the representations of counsel, the case of M. W. Shockley was continued in the Superior Court yesterday, upon motion of attorneys for the defence, the grounds being the absence of Drs. A. H. Harriss and W. D. McMillan, important wtinesses in behalf of the defendant. The continuance was apparently quite as welcome to the State as it was to the defence, the first named entering no strenuous objection to leaving the trial over until the term of court beginning September 24th. Judge Jones granted the continuance but gave the attorneys to understand that the case would certainly be called at the September term it being set peremptorily for the first case on the first Wednesday of the term. Dr. Harriss is at Morehead City as assistant surgeon of the Second Regiment, State Troops, in encampment there, and Dr. McMillan has not yet recovered fully from injuries received in a runaway several days ago. Mr. Shockley at once renewed his bond with Capt. Jno. W. Harper as surety in the sum of $7,500 and has his freedom. The continuance was upon the following affidavit tendered by the defendant:

State of North Carolina, New Hanover county, State vs. M. W. Shockley.

M. W. Shockley, who being duly sworn, deposes and says that Dr. W. D. McMillan is a material and necessary witness to the defendant's defence; that he expects to prove by said W. D. McMillan that the blow alleged to have been delivered by the defendant upon the head of Frank Talbert did not necessarily produce his death; that the death of the said Frank Talbert could have been produced by other causes than the infliction of the blow inasmuch as he is informed and believes that other blows of greater magnitude were received and inflicted upon the deceased after the alleged blow given by affiant.

That this defendant expects to prove by Dr. A. H. Harriss, a medical expert, that the blow alleged to have been inflicted by the defendant did not produce or cause the death of the said Frank Talbert. That this defendant has caused a subpoena to be issued and served upon both of the absent witnesses and that he is informed and believes that Dr. McMillan is seriously injured and that Dr. Harriss is now at Morehead City in attendance upon the encampment of the North Carolina State Guards; that this affidavit is not made for the mere purpose of delay but in sincerity and truth for the facts hereinbefore mentioned, and that he expects to procure the attendance of said witnesses at the next term of the Superior Court of New Hanover county.

M. W. SHOCKLEY,

Sworn and subscribed to before me this, July 30th, 1906.

Other Proceedings Yesterday.

The sheriff returned as summoned for the week: Richard Bradley, R. H. Grant, J. M. Culbreth, Z. E. Murrell, F. W. Kuhl, H. C. McQueen, A. A. Brown, J. F. Potter, Ike M. Solomon, A. F. Swinson, J. B. Mercer, W. B. Munroe, M. N. Kirkland, Geo. W. Britt, James Smith, Julius G. Canady. Messrs. Richard Bradley and H. C. McQueen were excused. A special venire of 100 had been summoned for the trial of the Shockley case, but upon its continuance the services of none of these was required.

The sentence of five years in the State prison, formerly passed on Arthur Brown, colored, charged with perjury and assault with a deadly weapon, was changed to five years on the roads.

At the close of the term, William J. Bellamy, Esq., counsel for George Robertson, one of the five young colored boys, convicted and sentenced for the larceny of brass and other metal, made an appeal in behalf of the young prisoner, who is of respectable parentage and who is believed to have been led into the theft by the older ones of the gang of thieves. In consideration of these and other facts, the boy was let off upon payment of the costs which

CONTRACT LET YESTERDAY FOR NEW APARTMENT HOUSE

The contract for the erection of the handsome new six-story apartment house which Messrs. Thos. H. Wright, Col. Walker Taylor, of Wilmington, and Mr. W. R. Kenan, of New York, will build at the southwest corner of Fifth and Market streets, has been awarded to the Central Carolina Construction Company, of Greensboro, N. C., and it is expected that work will begin in 30 days. Mr. Wright returned yesterday from New York where he had a conference with Mr. Kenan in regard to the matter and the award was made to the Greensboro concern in competition with a number of other bidders. The contract involves in round numbers an expenditure of $125,000 and the apartment house will be decidedly one of the most modern and desirable south of Richmond.

The new apartment house is 107x66 feet in size and is of the Spanish style of architecture as will be seen from the above cut which is from a water color drawing of the new structure by Mr. Robert L. Shape, of New York, the architect, who has associated with him Mr. H. E. Bonitz, of this city, as supervising architect. It is proposed to have the building completed and ready for occupancy by October 1st., 1907. The Central Carolina Construction Company is incorporated and has a capital stock of $100,000 so that it is in every way able to take care of the big contract. The same contractors are now at work on the Garrell building at northeast corner of Second and Princess streets, in this city. A description of the new apartment house was recently published in these columns and there is no need to repeat now, more than to say that the building will be one of the most handsome in the city and will in every sense of the word "fill a long felt want."

DROWNING ESCAPES

Mr. Oscar Morris a well known young clothing salesman of this city, had a narrow escape from drowning in Banks' Channel, at Wrightsville Beach, Sunday morning about 11 o'clock. With a party of friends, Mr. Morris had been over to the Inlet Club house on the west side of the channel and later with some friends went in bathing in the channel. A companion had swum to a shoal and taken a rest during the morning plunge but Mr. Morris had remained in the water and had gotten so far from shore that he could not get back in. His exhausted condition was even made more dangerous by the disarrangement of a bath suit which he wore and he had about given up, when Messrs. Leon and Lawrence Pinner and Mr. James S. Hooper fortunately came in hailing distance in a sail boat.

The three men in the boat saw the dangerous condition of Mr. Morris and without waiting for further arrangements Mr. Lawrence Pinner took a rope in his teeth, plunged in the water with his clothes on and soon reached the side of the drowning man. The boat was put to as near as possible and Mr. Pinner succeeded in getting Mr. Morris alongside, the two being pulled in.

Mr. Morris was pretty well gone when Mr. Pinner reached him and but for the fact that the latter is an expert swimmer and remained cool and in full possession of all his faculties at the time, a tragedy might indeed have resulted. Mr. Pinner received profuse thanks from Mr. Morris for his timely rescue and the act was warmly commended by all acquainted with the circumstances.

A lady from Sumter S. C., had a rather narrow escape from drowning in front of the Hotel Tarrymoore the same afternoon. She got beyond her depth and was being carried out when Mr. Luther Walker, life saver at the hotel, went out and brought her in.

Negro's Body Recovered.

The body of the young negro, Dan Ray, who was drowned from the deck of the steamer Johnson Saturday, was found floating in the river near the scene of the drowning Sunday morning. The body was turned over to relatives to be taken back to the home of the family in Moore county.

TOURNEY IN AUGUST

Big Meet Under Auspices of Wilmington Gun Club Is Now A Certainty

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

Substantial Cash Prizes Offered—Committees Are Appointed to Make All Arrangements—Visitors to be Given Royal Welcome.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Wilmington Gun Club last night in the law offices of Messrs. Empie & Empie, it was definitely decided to hold an Inter-State trap shoot here under the auspices of the Club and the dates decided upon for the meet are August 22nd and 23rd. Committees were appointed and all arrangements will be at once set on foot for a great tournament. It is hoped to have expert shots here from several States and the local trap shooters will upon this occasion extend to the visitors that hospitality for which the Cape Fear is famous. There will be the usual prizes and $100 a day in added money. There will be ten events a day, so that it will be seen that there will be $10 added money for each event.

The meet will take place on the traps of the Wilmington Club on the suburban car line and not only will the event attract many of the shooters themselves but the general public will be present to witness the crack shots.

At the meeting last night President Empie of the Club, presided and Mr. J. C. Loder was present as secretary. The tourney was enthusiastically discussed and the following committees were appointed to have in charge the several departments of the arrangements:

Enter Automobile Business.

Messrs. Fred. E. Herbst and L. M. Noble, of the Auptomobile Touring and Amusement Company, have decided to enter the business of dealers in this city and have already accepted the agency for several standard makes of machines. They will seek to interest the public principally in automobiles for commercial purposes, such as delivery wagons, livery turn outs and the like. They have rented a garage in the old Hayden carriage shops, on Third street, and in a few days will have some inviting propositions to make to the trade. Both are clever young men who thoroughly understand automobiling and will be in a position to speak with authority on any proposition that they may have to offer.

Mayor's Court Yesterday.

The Mayor's court yesterday was not as interesting as usual on Mondays. James Tteachey, colored, drunk and down, was fined $5 and costs. Stan-James Teachey, colored, drunk and down, was let off with costs. Wm. Jefferson, asleep in a carriage at Davis' stables, was fined $5 and costs. Maggie Dry, colored, disorderly conduct, was let off with costs. "Country" John Williams, an employe of the city in the Streets and Wharves Department, was charged with an assault. A judgment of 30 days on the roads and dismissal from the city's employ was changed to a fine of $10 and costs. Ben Johnson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Interesting Curios of the Past.

The Star was shown last night some interesting curios in the form of a pair of shoes brought over from Scotland by a Mrs. Parrish, one among the first settlers of Bladen county, and a piece of calico bought by Mr. John Sherman in Wilmington February 15th, 1840. The shoes were given to Mrs. Parrish when a child and kept by her for sixty years. She then gave them to Mrs. Margaret Sherman, who kept them as an heirloom for 84 years, falling next to the possession of Mr. C. D. Blizzard 23 years ago. Mr. Blizzard now has them at his home at Point Caswell. Mrs. Mary A. Blizzard, of Point Caswell, has the calico.

STATE CONVICT ESCAPED.

Broke From Squad on A. C. L. Terminal Work Here Yesterday.

George Hardy, a negro convict serving a ten year term in the State prison for murder succeeded in making his escape from the squad under Capt. Bradshaw at work on the A. C. L. terminals in this city yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'cock. Hardy was from one of the upper counties in the State and had served only a small part of his time. The guards at the camp out near the terminals and the police are on the look-out for the escape but nothing had been heard of him up to last night.

The negro is described as being copper colored, 6 feet, 2 inches high; claims to be a trusty; smooth face, talks very cleverly and is easily recognized. A reward, it is understood, will be paid for the capture and return of the negro to the camp or to the State prison authorities in Raleigh.

LAW TO PREVENT BURNING FOR INSURANCE.

The State Insurance Department, and especially State Insurance Commissioner James R. Young,have been the subject of considerable criticism because of the turn in the case at Raleigh against M. T. Norris, charged under the State law with burning some of his property in order to get $500 insurance. Mr. Norris was acquitted and therefore the friends of the accused all the more censure the Insurance Commissioner. During the trial some of the attorneys for the defense were particularly severe upon the solicitor who prosecuted the case, the Insurance Commissioner and the witnesses, in fact everybody connected with the prosecution.

Mr. Norris was acquitted and that should be sufficient vindication for him. If we grant, however, that the accussed was put to great expense, mortification and injury to defend himself from a charge of such gravity, a sober second thought will convince the fair minded that harsh resentment and abuse of the officers of the law for doing their duty was entirely out of place. It is presumed that the court would not permit it in court, but as a matter of course the public could not be prevented by any rule of the court from having an opinion and expressing it. However,the point which we wish to make is that it is both unfair and unwise to abuse law officers for doing a plain duty. The fact is they should be commended by all fair minded men, unless they prosecute a case that is flagrantly frivolous or push a prosecution for mere vindictiveness or vainglory.

There are very few people in North Carolina who will believe that the State Insurance Department was governed by any such motive in the Norris case. The attentionn of the Department was called to it, under circumstances that were believed to require it, the investigation was had, and under his sworn duty Commissioner Young concluded it was a matter for the Grand Jury. That the case was none of the Commissioner's making and that he had no other motive than to serve the State under a wise and beneficent law is borne out by the fact that the Grand Jury of the Wake County Superior Court found the evidence sufficient upon which to send in a true bill. The petty jury, however, after going into a more detailed hearing of the evidence and listening to the able and adroit argument of counsel acquitted Mr. Norris, but took 24 hours in which to deliberate upon the evidence. If Mr. Norris has a grievance for having to defend himself from such a charge it was his misfortune to be the victim of circumstances in connection with the burning. Certainly there is no warrant for attacking and abusing the State's law officials.

The law under which the Norris case was instituted contains the following provision:

"It shall be the duty of the insurance commissioner to examine, or cause examination to be made, into the cause, circumstances and origin of all fires occurring within the State to which his attention has been called in accordance with the provisions of the next preceding section, or by interested parties, by which property is accidently or unlawfully burned, destroyed or damaged, whenever in his judgment the evidence is sufficient, and to specially examine and decide whether the fire was the result of carelessness or the act of an incendiary. The commissioner shall, in person, by deputy or otherwise, fully investigate all circumstances surrounding such fire, and, when in his opinion such proceedings are necessary, take or cause to be taken the testimony on oath of all persons supposed to be cognizant of any facts or to have means of knowledge in relation to the matters as to which an examination is herein required to be made, and shall cause the same to be reduced to writing; and if he shall be of the opinion that there is evidence sufficient to charge any person with the crime of arson, or other wilful burning, he shall cause such person to be arrested and charged with such offense, and prosecuted, and shall furnish to the solicitor of the district all such evidence, together with the names of witnesses and all information obtained by him, including a copy of all pertinent and material testimony taken in the case."

There is a misconception in some quarters that Mr. Norris was charged with arson, whereas he was prosecuted under the above act of the General Assembly. Mr. Norris may be thoroughly vindicated under the verdict of the jury but all will agree that the law is a wise one and that the Insurance Department should vigorously enforce it. Many an innocent man may be tried under it but yet the law stands for the protection of property and the prevention of crime and should be enforced with that end in view.

Since the law was passed many prosecutions failed of convictions, but Commissioner Young has succeeded in securing between 75 and 80 convictions, sending the guilty parties to prison. This shows that the law is a useful one and has been faithfully enforced by an Insurance Commissioner who has proven himself a conscientious and alert official worthy of all commendation.

BIG JOB FOR THE INTERSTATE COMMISSION.

The new rate bill passed by Congress has given the Inter-State Commission a big job. The Commission has sent out a circular to common carriers subject to the amended law, requesting them to propose to the Commissionn such changes in constructing their tariffs of rates and 'appropriate ways of drawing up schedules showing charges' as may be necessary, and to co-operate through special committees or their representatives in traffic associations in devising a workable system. The carriers are reminded that the duty rests primarily with themselves, in view of their liabilty to forfietures and penalties in cases of failure to comply with their liability to forfeitures and penal- the requirements of the law. This is undoubtedly the case, and it is the purpose of the law that the railroads shall establish their own rates and charges and frame the schedules to be filed with the Commission and publicly posted. But the Commission "may determine and prescribe the form in which the schedules required by this section shall be prepared and arranged, and may change the form from time to time as shall be found expedient."

The requirements of the law will be so much fuller and more explicit when the amendments take effect at the end of next month that practically all schedules for interstate traffic will have to be recast and modified in important particulars. The task is a heavy one and may require more than another month to complete. Some of the railroads have already asked for more time, and it is presumably within the power of the Commission to grant it, under the provision in this schedule section which permits it in its descretion to "modify the reuuirements of this section in respect to publishing, posting and filing of tariffs, either in particular instances or by a general order applcable to special or peculiar circumstances or conditions."

The New York Journal Commerce referring to the practical impossibility of the Commission to attend to all the railroad schedules of the country, says:

"A general recasting of schedules to conform to the new requirements would seem to be an occasion for exercising this discretion. It is obvious that the Commission is in no position to take the intiative in determining and prescribing the form in which schedules are to be 'prepared and arranged' at the beginning. These will necessarily differ more or less on different lines according to the character of their traffic and the country they traverse. The railroad managers alone can deal with this matter intelligently at the start, and they have the basis to work upon in their present schedules, but it will be important to have these in a form approved or assented to by the Commisison, that there may be as little occasion as possible for changes hereafter."

DRANK LIQUOR WITH HIS FRIENDS

Took Course at Greensboro Institute and Although He Afterwards Sold Whiskey Never Tasted or Wanted it Again.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

I am a graduate of Greensboro Keeley Institute. Fourteen years ago I was a hopeless wreck, engaged in a retail liquor business, and had reached that point where I could not resist taking a drink nearly every time an intimate acquaintance patronized me. My business was neglected by almost every afternoon drunks. Friends advised me to go to Keeley; I laughed at them, but at last, by earnest persuasion I visited your Institute and took the regular course of treatment. After graduation, being unable to sell by business, I continued it under personal supervision, but with no desire to use any alcoholic beverage, for a year; then for two years I farmed, working in all kinds of weather, but never craving a drink of liquor. I then had to take back the retail saloon business to save a debt owing me, and continue in the business until January 1st, 1904, when the dispensary system went into effect, and during that eleven years, continually handling liquor, I have neither wanted nor tasted it. I am now employed in the Raleigh dispensary, but with no inclination, desire or intention of using liquor as a beverage. I can only say, from my personal experience, the best reason why a person afflicted with the disease of drunkeness should take the Keeley Treatment, at the Greensboro Keeley Institute, is because it eradicates the disease and discharges its patient thoroughly cured, a new man, if he follows all instructions attending the treatment.

I drank liquor because I loved the taste and effect better than a calf loves milk. I could not handle or look at liquor without tasting it. It had me so thoroughly in its power my friends, and even I, thought mine a hopeless case. But Keeley Institute made me a new man. Before I took the treatment all I was worth was a small retail bar-room and I about its best customer. To-day I own several valuable houses and lots in Raleigh, a splendid farm near the city, have money in bank, recently resigned as a member of Raleigh Board of Aldermen, and have an established credit that any man may feel proud of, as I do. All this to the credit of Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The great difficulty about having laws with iron teeth is that there are already too many lawyer dentists who make a specialty of pulling such teeth —Washington Post.

—Joseph Addisonn Brown has been twice so near the Congressional nomination that he could almost taste the heart, and both times it escaped his grasp. But both times he came up smiling and named the successful nominee.—Raleigh News and Observer.

It was evidently a mistake about Governor Stokes, of New Jersey, being engaged to marry a young lady of North Carolina, as has been announced in several newspapers, but his excellency might have allowed the girl's parents to have issued the denials.—Charlotte Observer.

—The Washington Post's comment upon Secretary Taft's exhortation to North Carolinians to join the Republican party, sums up the real situation when it says: "You cannot fashion a sow's ears into a silken purse." The Post shows it understands North Carolina Republicanism as well as if its editor had lived in this State all his life.

—Wherever they can get a word in, the ship-subsidy grabbers are still arguing that "we can't build ships without a subsidy." The fact that "the American people hate the very word 'subsidy,'" as a Republican Congressman said publicly two years ago, and that they don't want ships at the cost of subsidies, ought to close their mouths; but it doesn't.—Brooklyn Citizen.

—"Uncle Joe" Cannon comes hither from a very pleasant visit to John W. Gates in the latter's Connecticut home. As controller of great railroad corporations Gates became conspicuous years ago. As Speaker of the House, "Uncle Joe" was successful in preventing the enactment of the bill forbidding campaign contributions from corporations. See?—Brooklyn Citizen.

TWINKLINGS.

—Patience—She married an optician. Patrice—Well, she always said she liked a man who could look into her eyes.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

—"Aren't you ashamed to beg?" "Sometimes, mum. When I find how stingy people are I fairly blushes for them."—Philadelphia Leodger.

—"How thoughtful you are of your wife, Mr. Goodbye." "Yes, d'ye know I never take a drink without eating a clove on her account."—Jester.

Tom—I kissed her when she wasn't looking. Clara—What did she do? Tom—Kept her eyes closed the rest of the evening.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

—Mother—Now, Isador, go and give the new governess a kiss. Isador—No, thank you; not me. I know her. She will give me a slap on the face like she did papa.—Wiener Caricaturen.

—She's awfully sweet. Her cheeks are like peaches. She has cherry lips. Her breath is nectar. Her hair is like yellow corn. Her eyes are like blackberries. She is perfectly delicious in French dressing. Her complexion is a delicate cream. I love to toast her. She's a honey. I sometimes feel as though I would like to press her to a jelly. But if I did, would she be cordial?—Life.

ADVERTISE IN THE STAR

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—The Postoffice Department on Saturday anounced the establishment of city delivery at Rocky Mount, effective November 1st. when three letter carriers and one substitute carrier will begin work. Twenty-two letter boxes will be placed in different parts of the town.

—Tom Lunsford, the negro who was fearfully burned when the explosion occurred at the works of the Standard Oil Company a few days ago at Durham, died Saturday morning, making the second victim of the accident.

—On Saturday's train on the Raleigh and Southport Railroad Raleigh received her first shipment of through freight, which came over the A. C. L. from the far South, and was transferred to the Raleigh and Southport at Fayetteville.

—The members of the State Corporation Commission went to Pittsboro on Saturday and inspected the branch of the Seaboard Air Line Railway from Pittsboro to Moncure. They have requested a meeting of the citizens of Pittsboro on next Thursday. They examined several witnesses and made a personal inspection on the roadbed, where they could see for themselves the rotten cross-ties. They will no doubt make their report in a few days.

—Senator Simmons, State Democratic Cchairman, has called a meeting of the members of the Democratic State Executive Committee on Monday, August 6, at 8 o'clock P. M., in the Senate Chamber in the city of Raleigh, for the purpose of electing a chairman and secretary, four members of the Central Commitee from each district and the transaction of such other business as may be necessary. Full attendance is desired.

—Mr. Wilby Morgan, aged eighty-seven years was instantly killed at his home, near Salisbury on Saturday by a team of mules, which he was driving, running away. Mr. Morgan was removing a box from the wagon when the team took fright, throwing him violently to the ground, and he died soon afterwards. Mr. Morgann was a prominent farmer and a noted Confederate veteran. A son who went with Mr. Morgan through the war witness the accident.

—The Bank of Mount Olive has hit upon a novel plan of increasing deposits and at the same time starting a savings account for the new comers. The plan is that the bank give $1 as a birthday present to start a savings account for every new baby, provided that the parents of the child will add $4 to the amount, making a total of $5 for which a certificate bearing 3 per cent. interest will be issued in the name of the baby.

—Raleigh News and Observer, July 29: Yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, a lady at Mrs. Davis' boarding house, corner of Edenton and McDowell streets, was awakened by a noise in her room. On looking up she saw the figure of a man, but was unable to tell his color on account of the darkness. She got out of bed and rushed for the door, but on being roughly seized by the intruder she screamed. The man immediately released his hold and jumped out of the window, which is about twenty feet to the ground. The police have made no arrests as no description of the man could be obtained.

—Two white prisoners made their escape from jail at Fayetteville on Sunday shortly after noon by sawing iron bars in two with a hack saw. How and when they obtained the saw is a mystery. The country is being searched by sheriff and deputies. One of them, oRbert Thompson, was in for illicit distilling. It is claimed that bond would have been given on Monof them, Robert Thompson, was in for forging an order for a jug of whiskey on an express agent. There are no tidings of the escaped prisoners up to last accounts. They had been given the freedom of the corridors.

—Pittsboro special, July 28: Major H. A. London, Adjutant General of the North Carolina division of the United Confederate Veterans, received today official notice that the railroads will give the one cent a mile rate requested by him for the Confederate Veterans' reunion at Morehead City on the 22nd and 23rd of August. This rate will make the fare for the round trip from Raleigh $3.15 and from Charlotte $6.50. Tickets will be sold on the 30th, 31st., and good until August 27th. He has procured the rate of $1.50 per day at the Atlantic Hotel for the veterans, also the use of the tents and camp equipments of the State guard for those who prefer to camp out.

—Charlotte News: The News has received information from a very reliable source that the entire plans of the much talked of South and Western Railway have been materially altered and that the road will be built to Mount Holly, 11 miles west of Charlotte and from thence will run directly southeast eo Lugoff, S. C. In other words the much discussed connection at Spartanburg will be abandoned and the South and Western will co-operate with the Seaboard Air Line, 25 miles of the road now being in operation and 260 under construction. The line runs from Johnson City, Tenn., to Spruce Pine, in this State, and the new route proposed is that the line shall come in from the west to Mount Holly, there gaining conection with Wilmington and the north, and at Lugoff with conections to Charleston, Augusta and Savanah, and at Harmony, S. C., for Atlanta.

—As the result of a difficulty at Grimesland, Saturday evening, Policeman T. J. Tally and a negro, Sherman Grimes, are dangerously wounded and the latter is not expected to live. The negro was in the store of the Grimes Land and Supply Company, where trouble arose with a member of that firm about a debt Grimes owed him. Policeman Tally was sent for to remove the negro, who had become very disorderly. The negro resisted the officer and a tussle followed, in which they got outside the store. At this point Thomas Grimes, father of the young negro, went to the aid of his son. Policeman Tally ordered him to stand back and upon refusal to obey struck him on the temple with his billet. The officer broke away and as both negroes were advancing on him shot the younger one in the intestines and the older one in the leg. The officer was cut in four places.

—Burglars entered the home of D. W. Lentz, of Rowan county, Saturday night, taking as their reward $100. Members of the family saw the intruders, raised an alarm and gave a hot chase, but the thieves escaped.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Writing from Bryson City, Swain county, a personal letter to the editor of The News and Observer, Judge W. R. Allen, of the Wake-Wayne-Johnston-Harnett district had the following: "I tried this week the case of State vs. Colonoheskee, a Cherokee Indian, for carrying concealed weapons. The witnesses were Moses Owl and Oymion Wolf. After his conviction the chief, Bird Sololanta, was introduced to show that he was a bad Indian. We had to use an interpreter. I mention it because many of our people do not know that such conditions exist."

—Monroe Journal: Mr. J. T. W. Broom is one of these book farmers, so much so that the agricultural papers are pestering him to write articles for them. Some people don't think much of book farmers, but notwithstanding his defects in this particular, Mr. Broom, the young president of the Union County Cotton Association, stands pretty well in the estimation of his neighbors. He has just thrashed his grain crop—459 1-2 bushels of wheat and oats. On six acres, from 10 bushels of the seeds of the Appler oats, he made 307 bushels, which he can put on the market in thirty days at a dollar a bushel. He hasn't put a hoe in his cotton patch this year, and he makes a bale to the acre when seasons are fair. All the work on his two-horse farm is done by himself and tyelve-year-old son. Besides his cotton, corn, peas, and grain, he has the first vegetables on the market and gets fancy prices for them. These "book farmers" will yet come into godd report.

—Charlotte special, July 28: Some rather startling statements were made today by a city official showing the wonderful decrease of imported liquor to Charlotte for six months past. These things afford great satisfaction to the prohibitionists and came from a city official who has thoroughly studied the situation. The importation of liquor from Salisbury has fallen off 90 per cent. for the past six or eight months from what it was soon after the prohibition law went into effect. There are comparatively few who make the trip to Salisbury now compared with the crowds that used to go over, especially on Saturday nights, returning the same night or on Sunday morning. The jug trade also has dwindled down to a small thing compared with the hundreds of gallons that were shipped by express or brought into the city six or eight months back. The decrease in liquor importation indicates that those liquor importation indicates that those who once used the stuff are getting to the point where confirmed users of whiskey are not so willing to spend $4 or $5 of hard earned money at one time for whiskey.

NEW YORK FLOATED.

Clyde Liner Off the Shoals Down the River—To Proceed.

The Clyde Line steamer New York, which went hard and fast ashore in the river, just off Big Island, nine miles below Wilmington Saturday afternoon as she was proceeding on her regular trip to the home port, was successfully floated on high tide yesterday afternoon about three o'clock after about 450 tons of her cargo of lumber, cross-ties and naval stores had been lightered in the barges Minneola, Beaver and the Louis H. The steamer returned to the city under her own steam, very little, if any damaged. When she has reloaded her cargo, she will proceed on her voyage to New York. The tugs Marion and Blanche were the tugs which successfully got the ship off, though the same tugs with the Navassa and steamer Wilmington had pulled on her previously.

As stated Sunday morning the grounding of the steamer was on account of some disarrangement of her steering gear, which was easily repaired.

There were 13 passengers on the New York and all but two of these remained aboard. The exceptions were Mr. J. H. Creveling, of this city, and a Georgetown passenger, who came up to the city Sunday afternoon and left by rail for their destination.

THE WATER WORKS MATTER.

Commission May Meet To-day to Hear Expert's Report.

Prof. J. M. Bandy, who has been here the past several days making a physical examination of the plant of the Clarendon Water Works Company for the purpose of informing the Water Commission of the city as to its value in view of a contemplated purchase, returned to Laurinburg yesterday, where he is engaged in putting in a plant for that town. Prof. Bandy has left his report with the Water Commission which has asked the Clarendon Water Works Company to submit a proposition for the sale of its plant to the city. The report and any proposition the Water Works Company may submit will probably be considered at a meeting to be held to-day or later in the week and a report will be made from the Commission to the Board of Aldermen at its regular meeting Monday night.

Prof. Bandy on his trip to Wilmington was accompanied by his bride. They were guests at the Ocean View Hotel, on Wrightsville Beach, for most of the time.

JUSTICE BORNEMANN'S COURT.

"Rough House" Among Negroes on the Sound is Aired.

Justice Bornemann was engaged more than two hours yesterday afternoon in getting at the bottom of a general, free-for-all fight that occurred at a negro hall of entertainment on Myrtle Grove Sound last Friday night. "It was a big fight" the justice said in relating the circumstances to a reporter. David Wade and Charlie Spicer seem to have been the principals in the engagement and each of them came off bloody as a beef. Wade is alleged to have spit Spicer's lip open with a knife while the compliment was returned by the wounded man's brother who jabbed Wade through the hand with another knife. William Highsmith is said to have taken the part of one or the other with a bar from behind one of the doors. Yesterday at the trial Wade was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., while Spicer had Brooke G. Empie, Esq., for his advocate. There was a large congregation of country darkeys in as witnesses and spectators and the Justice's office was filled while the overflow extended almost to the car track in the middle of the street. All three were found sufficiently at fault to be bound over and all were required to give bond. Wade deposited $50 in cash and the others escaped jail through the intervention of Messrs. Nixon and E. I. Bear.

Building for the Year.

City Building Inspector H. E. Bonitz was glad yesterday to have been able to furnish a government official with the number and value of buildings erected in Wilmington during the past fiscal year, the figures being highly important for an official report by which Wilmington hopes to get an extension of the free mail delivery. From July 1st. 1905, to July 1st. this year exactly 387 permits were issued. The Building Inspector says these were largely for dwellings in the outlying districts, mainly homes for working men and people of that class, who are making homes for themselves rather than being dependent upon renting agents.

FROM CAMP AND CRUISE.

Wilmington Sailors and Soldiers at Morehead City Encampment.

Sergeant Louis E. Hall, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, and Lieutenant Commander H. M. Chase and Chief Quartermaster W. Hull Moore, of the Naval Reserves, are at home from the encampment and the cruise of the Naval Brigade and National Guard at Morehead City. Sergeant Hall says that the W. L. I. is in fine shape and that the soldiers are enjoying themselves in every way, but will be ready for the home-coming the last of the week.

The Naval Reserves are on the Campton, off the encampment grounds, and but for the fact that the steamer was ashore for a part of two days in the sound, the cruise is in every way a success. The tars are showing up well and are getting some valuable experience. Lieut. Chase left Lieut. Peschau in command of the Wilmington Division.

MRS. W. E. COREY SECURES DIVORCE

Navada Court, Without Argument, Grants Decree Against President of Steel Trust

Deserted Wife for Giddy Whirl of New York—Life Such That He is Unfit to Care for Son.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Reno, Nev., July 30.—Mrs. William Ellis Corey, wife of the president of the United States Steel Corporation, was awarded a divorce in the Second District Court of Nevada, sitting at Reno at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The case was submitted without argument and the jury jury took but one ballot. The jury was out but a few minutes. Mr. Corey was not present. . Mrs. Corey was in tears when told that she had been given a decree and the custody of her 16-year-old son, Allen Corey. She drove at once to her home on River Side Avenue where she will continue to reside. No evidence was submitted by the defense and there was no argument. The question of alimony was not introduced. Mrs. Corey made an interesting admission, however, stating that in May, 1906, several weeks before her petition for divorce was filed, she negotiated through attorneys, a financial settlement with her husband. She was not asked what the nature of this settlement was.

"I am a residence of Reno, Nevada," said Mrs. Corey when placed on the stand, "and the wife of William Ellis Corey, the defendant in this action. We were married on December 1, 1883, at Pittsburg, Pa., and lived together until May 1, 1905. At that time my husband deserted me and went to New York. I followed him and had a conversation with him in the hotel Lorraine. He told me he had decided to live apart. He said that it was impossible for us to live happily together and that I would never see him again. He stated that he intended going to Europe for several months. There was no scene. I talked with him about the matter and urged him to again resume his place in our home, but he refused. I have never seen him since."

Mrs. Corey stated that she was best suited for the custody of her son and asked the court to place him in her care. Mrs. Corey was visibly affected while telling her story.

"Is it true that notoriety was the principal factor in your separation from Mr. Corey and is responsible for this divorce proceeding?" asked Benjamin Curler, another of her attorneys.

"Such is not the case. The stories that may have appeared in the press had nothing to do with it," said Mrs. Corey.

Miss Addie Corey, sister ot the respondent, corroborated Mrs. Corey's statement that Corey had deserted his wife and told how she and her aged mother had made several ineffectual attempts to effect a reconciliation.

Her brother, she said, had lost sight of his home, being absorbed in business and infatuated with the fast life of New York.

"Do you consider Mr. Corey a proper custodian for his son?" she was asked.

"I do not," she replied. "He is not a proper person for his son to associate with. He has no home and his associates are not fit company for a young man of Allen's age. I do not think any New York man is fit to have charge of a boy of his age."

"Do you mean all New York men, Miss Corey?" continued the attorney.

"I mean wealthy New York men."

Allen Corey stated taht at the time of the parting his father called him to his office and told him that he had decided to part from his mother. "He said I was too young to understand the reasons. He then said that my mother was a good woman and that my place was at her side."

Attorney Summerfield, of Reno, that his client, William E. Corey, was as anxious for the decree of divorce as his wife. "If the decree is granted," he said, Mr. Corey will be entirely satisfied. He has consented to the divorce. "

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great Northern Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped or become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die with lung inflammation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life. THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Mad Dog Excitement.

A black and tan fice, belonging to Mrs. C. T. Croom, became affected with something like the rabies early yesterday afternoon at the home of the family, the Marlborough House, on Scuth Front street, and biting and snapping at everything in sight, the dog ran into the barber shop of Mr. Varney Gilbert, just under the building. The little animal was given a wide berth until Officer Charlie Wood came up and gave Mr. Lutle Croom permission to kill the animal, which he accomplished with a billiard cue.

Expressions of the regret of the French government at the accidental killing of Lieutenant Clarence England, U. S. A dispatch from Paris announces that the French Minister of Marine sent an officer to call on Mr. McCormick and express the sorrow and reget of the Fench government, and Mr. Des Portes, who is at Newport sent a telegram similar in expression to the State Department.

OUTRAGED DEAD AND THE LIVING

Widow of Late Senator Vance Writes Scathing Denunciation of Newspapers that Publishes Base Article.

Recently the Asheville Gazette-News, an afternoon paper, published a poker story involving the late late Senator Vance as a player of the game. The widow of the Senator immediately wrote to the Gazette-News as follows:

"Editor of the Gazette-News:

"In your issue of July 8th you had copied an article apparently from the New York Sun, an article headed 'When Vance and Ransom Bluffed at Poker.' I have since learned that the article first appeared in the Washington Post. I have written to that paper asking for the name of the writer and denouncing the writer and the paper as liars, and who have basely lied to eke out a living under false pretenses. Senator Vance never belonged to any club during his life, never played poker, never played a game of cards with Senator Ransom in his life, did not know Mr. Mansir, of Missouri, except to speak to him, and as there is no single expresion in this writer's article that sounds like anything Senator Vance ever said, I think he lies when he professes to have known him; and he certainly lies when he says he ever came to his house to play poker. It may be amusing to certain depraved men to take the names of public men and manufacture immoral correspondence for cheap papers to pad their columns, but I protest that it is an outrage, and if there is any method in the law that will allow I shall avail myself of it to denounce and punish them. I am not aware of any protection whatever that any one can get, from a paper which copies scandal, but I will most certainly use it if there is any law against the lying, insulting journal that does copy. Senator Vance has always seemed to possess the kind of picturesquesness and personal attraction that brought attention and so his memory is blackened by "hungry" scribblers to gain attention. I do not know even the names of the editors of the Gazette-News, or whether they are natives of the State of North Carolina, so that I cannot reproach them with treachery and insult to one of their own citizens who spent his life in her service, but I do say that if I was a man I woud beat you to death for publishing that base article about my husband, and if there is any way under heaven of making you suffer I will avail myself of it.

"I am quite ready to admit that you have no such trained moral sense as to appreciate the fact that there are and have been public men who were not gamblers, and whose names are not the property of irresponsible writers for newspaper pay, or that you are capable of understanding the enormity of such productions or even that you have outraged the living as well as the dead.

"MRS. Z. B. VANCE.

"Gombroon, near Black Mountain, N. C."

The Gazette's Explanation.

Referring to the letter of Mrs. Vance, the Gazette-News editorially says:

"Mrs. Vance states in a communication which appears on this page that she will endeavor to inflict punishment upon the Washington Post for publishring the story 'When Vance and Ransom Bluffed at Poker,' and the Gazette-News for copying it. There are many stories told in this section every day and attributed to Vance and the great majority of them appear to have been 'told on himself' by the Senator. How many of them are genuine Vance stories, nobody, perhaps, knows. They all have a distinctive quality of humor and originality which leads the people to accept them as characteristic of the great statesman. No account is taken of the fact that the Senator often puts himself in an unfavorable light, and the yarns pass as pure fiction. In copying the story alluded to by Mrs. Vance, it goes without saying that the Gazette-News had no thought or object disrespectful to her husband's memory. It was copied from another North Carolina per wherein it was credited to the New York Sun, whether corectly o not we do not know. And, also, as a matter of course, had we known that the publication of the article would wound Mrs. Vance, it would not have been published. If Mrs. Vance feels that wrong was done by the publication, she learned of it by means of the Gazette-News and is therefore in a position to seek redress. It was copied because of its local interest, humor and literary quality."

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 30th.—The cotton market was very quiet today but ruled geerally steady and closed steady at net advance of 1 to 4 points. Sales for the day were estimated at only 75,000 bales. The opening was steady but 1 to 3 points lower in response to easier cables than looked for and bearish private crop reports one of which indicated a decided improvement in the crop for the past month and the other of which reported very favorable prospects in the Western belt. But there was very little pressure against the market, making it look as if the scattering long interest had been pretty well cleaned up on the decline of last week and the market rallied shortly after the opening on covering of shorts who may have been influenced to some extent by the detailed weather bulletins showing quite heavy precipitation in some sections of the Western and Central belt. Some buying was also prompted by the theory that a bearish August condition report next Friday had been discounted and that the crop was in a condition, owing to the recent rains, to be quite severely damaged by a spell of dry hot weather should such develop in the near future. At any rate prices rallied to a shade over the closing figures of the previous day and the market closed at practicaly the top. South-spot markets were unchanged to 1-16 cents lower.

Receipts at the ports otday 6,391 bales against 5,003 last week and 15,590 last year. For the week 30,000 bales against 29,492 last week and 73,620 last year. The receipts at New Orleans 16 bales against 3,786 last year and at Houston 640 bales against 3,100 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands, 10.90; middling Gulf, 11.15; sales 252 bales. Futures closed steady. rices ranged as follows:

ATTEMPTED LYNCHING IN PENNSYLVANIA TOWN

Negro Murdered Woman and Two Children and Shot Third—Attempted Nameless Crime on Child—Brute Was Only Saved By the Police.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Cannonsburg, Pa., July 30.—Elmer Dempster, a nineteen-year-old negro, who had been arrested for the murder of Mrs. Samuel Peace and two children, and the shooting of a third child, near here last evening, was taken to tre Washington county jail, at Washington, Pa., leaving here on a trolley at 8 o'clock this morning. Dempster was the last person seen about the house before the tragedy. He was a helper on the Pearce farm and after the departure of Samuel Pearce with his sister, Miss Fannie Pearce, for the Cannonsburg railroad station, Dempster is said to have been at the scene of the tragedy looking after the stock. He was arrested and put through a course of sweating which lasted until daylight, when it is claimed he made a complete confession.

The only things missing from the Pearce home are $12 and a few cents and the revolver with which Mrs. Pearce and her children were murdeed. According to the story told in his confession, Dempster attempted an assault on the four-year-old daughter after the departure of Mr. Pearce but was frustrated by the mother who went to a bureau to get a revolver to shoot him. The negro says he secured the gun first and after killing the mother and shooting the children set fire to the house to hide the crime. Feeling against Dempster is running high.

Tried to Lynch Negro.

Washington, Pa., July 30.—Dempster was safely lodged in jail here at nine o'clock. Two attempts were made to take the negro from the officers. Shortly after leaving Connonsburg about twenty men boarded the car and with shouts of "lynch him," and "kill him," dragged the prisoner and officers from the car. A fierce struggle followed but the officers finally drove the mob off at the points of their revolvers. Nearly three hundred people had gathered at the court house here, but the crowd was eluded by taking the prisoner through the basement to the jail.

DAY OF EXCITEMENT AT HARRY THAW'S CELL

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw Compelled By Detective to Return to Her Hotel—Elder Mrs. Thaw in Tears—Mysterious Letter,

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, July 30.—There was an excited conversation between Roger O'Mara, the Pittsburg detective, and Mrs. Harry K. Thaw, in the Tombs prison to-day. O'Marra and Mr. Hartridge, Thaw's attorney, started to leave the prison together but O'Mar returned to Mrs. Thaw who was waiting to see her husband and asked her to go to her hotel.

"I am going to stay right here," she said, "until the visitors leave this afternoon. I don't want to leave with things as they are."

"You must go," said O'Mara. He took her arm, while she was still protesting and led her to her hansom As he helped her in, O'Mara said to the driver, "You take her to the Lorraine and don't bring her back again to-day."

Earlier in the day there had been a scene of excitement in Thaw's cell. While Mrs. William Thaw was still in conference with her son Mrs. Harry Thaw came hurrying to the warden's office from Thaw's cell. She was evidently greatly disturbed and asked the warden to make an exception to the prison rules and allow her to use the prison telephone to call up Clifford W. Hartridge, Thaw's counsel,, and his detective, Roger O'Mara. She declared that the matter was very urgent and the warden consented. Both men responded promptly and had an interview with Harry K. Thaw at his cell before Mrs. Thaw left the prison. When the elder Mrs. Thaw came to the warden's office there were traces of tears on her face and she seemed agitated. She did not speak to Mrs. Harry K. Thaw as she passed her in the office. It is believed that the excitement at Thaw's cell was brought about by a letter received by Mrs. Harry K. Thaw, which she took to the cell with her.

Mrs. Hartridge said to-day that there are no detectives working in Pittsburg on behalf of Thaw or in his interest, except such as may be employed, or connected with ex-Chief O'Mara.

PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Jail Delivery at Fayetteville—Sensational Arrest Followed.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., July 30.—Sunday as persons were passing the county jail on their return from church, two prisoners, both white, were seen to be slipping between the bars. An alarm was given and Sheriff Marsh soon discovered that the escapes were Robert Thomson, a young white man of good family, charged with illicit liquor dealing, and one Hudson, a young white man charged with forging an order for two gallons of whiskey in the depot at Godwin for a consignee. The prisoners had been given the liberty of the corridors during the morning and had drawn up a hack saw found tied to a string. With this they managed to escape. It is said that bond would have been given for Thomson to-day had he not escaped. Neither of them has been recaptured.

A sensation was sprung to-day when Goin Thomson, a brother of the escaped Thomson, was arrested on a warrant charging him with aiding and abetting his brother in the escape. The sheriff thinks he has evidence to show that Goin Thompson tied the saw to the string, climbed over the back jail fence and pointed the way to escape. The preliminary trial of the young man was in progress several hours to-day when a continuance was taken until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Messrs. H. L. Cook and D. J. Cashwell represent the defendant while Mr. H. McD. Robinson and County Attorney A. S. Hall are prosecuting.

RATE BILL ENFORCEMENT.

Conference Between Inter-state Commerce Commission and Railroads.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, July 30.—An informal conference was held to-day between members of the Inter-state Commerce Commission and representatives of the Southeastern Passenger Agents Association regarding the Commission's interpretation of the railroad rate law. The conference related to the filing with the Commission by the railroads of the schedule of rates and tariffs. While no definite decision hase been reached by the Commission regarding the time of filing the schedules, the members have no disposition to make the enforcement of the new law unnecessarily embarrassing to the railroads. Conferences between the Commission and allroad officials which may be held from time to time will be the medium for the adjustment of differences that may arise in the interpretation of the law.

MILLIONAIRE ASTOR SAVES LIFE.

Rescued Drowning British Soldier from River Thames.

Windsor, England, July 30.—Second Lieutenant John Jacob Astor, son of William Waldorf Astor, to-day gallantly rescued a trooper of his regiment, the First Life Guards, from drowning in the river Thames. Lieutenant Astor's troop was engaged in swimming practice when a trooper's horse got into difficulties in midstream and kicked his rider. The latter sank in deeep water and young Astor dived in and brought up the soldier in time to enable the latter to be restored to life.

Asheville, N. C., July 28.—In a freight collision on the Southern Railway, at Spencer, at 4 o'clock this morning, Brakeman T. E. Rogers, of Asheville, was instantly killed, and N. W. Hunt, and Fred Kelley, also of Asheville, were severey injured.

REGULAR WARFARE IN RUSSIAN CAUCASUS

Tartars and Armenians Fighting Pitched Battles—Tartars Also Attacking Russian Troops—Reinforcements Had to Be Sent to Scene.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

St. Petersburg, July 31.—The triangular truce between Armenians, Tartars and the Russian troops before Shusha was of the briefest nature. The display of white flags and the naming of representatives of the warring factions to arrange a lasting peace was but a prelude to the resumption of hostilities yesterday upon a larger and bloodier scale. The fighting is not only in full progress at Shushua itself, a town of 30,00 people, 180 miles to the southeast of Tiflis, the Tarter quarter of which apparently is in flames, but it has spread to the surrounding country. There the Tartar population has risen and is striving to overwhelm the Armenians and the Russian troops. Gen. Zoloschakov, in command of the Russian forces, has appealed urgently for re-inforcements. A battalion of riflemen at Yelisavetpol, the nearest point where there are soldiers, already has been despatched to the scene. It is worthy of note that the Russians, who, in the disorders of last year were accused of protecting the Tartars from Armenian attack, are now themselves hard pressed by the Mohammedan hordes.

Pitched Battle.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—Advices received here from Tiflis dated yesterday show that a regular campaign is progressing between Armenians and Tartars in that section. Yesterday lage forces of Tartars attacked Askeran Pass, wrich was occupied by Armenians, but were unable to break the Armenian cordon. Fighting is now going on in the villages of Paramurt, Haladad and Karantunkh. The Tartars are concentrating against Askeran Pass.

On July 27 Kurds attacked the villages of Kalbalikened and Kiermizhan and were endeavoring to force an entrance into Shusha. At the latter place they were repulsed by Russian troops under General Zoloschakov.

News received here from Yellsavetpol says that communication between Agram and Shusha has been interrupted for five days. Firing between Arsenians and Tartars continued from July 25th to July 28th. The fighting near Shusha increased in severity on July 29th and resulted in the burning of the town. The government has despatched re-inforcements to the scene.

Soldier Makes Scene in Church.

Odessa, July 30.—A common soldier caused a remarkable sensation in the Cathedral here to-day by arising in the body of the church during services and contradicting certain political statements of the Archbishop uttured from the pulpit.

A thanksgiving service for the dissolution of the lower house of Parliament was being held in the Cathedral. It was attended by all the local authorities. The Archbishop arose and declared among other things that the members of the opposition were anarchists and enemies of the state. Whtn he had finished a soldier got up and began to make a speech. He said it was not the opposition, but men like the Archbishop, who were the real enemies of the State. A scne of great confusion ensued amid which the soldier was arrested and taken to prison.

HARTJE LETTERS WERE STOLEN

Detective Admits That He Broke Open Coachman's Trunk.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, Pa., July 30.—Beginning with the sixth week and what is expected to be the final week of the Hartje divorce trial, to-day was taken up with the long expected evidence as to the manner in which Augustus Hartje procured the love letters alleged to have been written by Mrs. Mary Scott Hatje to "Tom" Madine, the coachman corespondent in the case. John B. Staubb, a private detective, swore that he opened Madine's trunk at the house in which Madine roomed, on two occasions. The first time was May 317 and the second time June 18. On the second occasion he said John A. Anderson, another detective, was with him.

Staubb was subjected to a vigorous cross-examination and the relation of the methods which he and his brother detective used caused much amusement. Staubb yas unable to tell what other articles were in the trunk under the fire of cross-examination.

Anderson corroboated Staubb in regard to the second looting of the trunk. The superintendent of the detective agency also testified also about the directions given his men and receiving the letters from them.

Objection was made by Mrs. Hartje's attorney to the introduction of the testimony but the judge admitted it, declaring however, that the other side would be allowed the fullest latitude in seeking to refute the evidence. Andrw Fisher, brother-in-law of Augustus Hartje, was the last witness of the day, He assumed responsibility for directing the detectives and said the attorneys for his brother did not know where the letters came from until he told them incidental to the story of the robbery of Madines trunk it developed that a letter and a telegram signed by John F. Scott, father of Mrs. Hartje was found in the trunk along with the 40 honeyed missives, which the wife of the millionaire is charged with writing.

It is alleged that a paragraph in this letter read: "On the advice of Mr. Freeman, I am sending you $60." Neither the telegram nor the letter were read in court.

PROPHET DOWIE TAKES APPEAL.

Says Court Interfered With Gods Plan About Zion City.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, July 30.—John Alexander Dowie will appeal from the decision of Judge Landis of the Federal Court declaring Zion City a trust estate and holding that Dowie has no individual proprietorship in the estate.

Dowie himself made the announcement that action toward an appeal had been taken at a meeting yesterday at Shiloh House, Zion City, attended by nearly 100 of his supporters. In his address Dowie appeared to be more concerned over Judge Landis' denunciation of the "restoration host oath" as treasonable than any other point in the opinion. He declared that the Judge himself in his oath of office was compelled to put God above man and family ties.

With regard to the trust estate finding, he declared that he had never received money as a trustee, but it was always simply a matter of contract, evidenced in writing, showing all payments to be debts, payable in one year on call.

If the election ordered by Judge Landis be carried out, he said, the people of Zion will be violating the theocratic idea, the very foundation stone of the church. He emphasized that the people had not called nor placed him him as head of the church, but that he, as God's chosen man, had admitted each individual member into the church.
